Died, in Waseca, Minn., on Sunday, October eighth, at one o'clock, Mr. Henry B. Sudduth, of heart failure. Mrs. Nissley, his daughter, passed through Lincoln on Monday enroute to Waseca, from Colorado. Mrs. Frances Wilson of Lincoln, Mr. Sudduth's sister and his niece Mrs. John Dorgan also left on Monday for Waseca. Mr. Sudduth visited his Lincoln relatives this summer. He was a druggist and highly beloved and respected in Waseca for the quiet depth and strength of his character. Mrs. Henry Sudduth made a visit to her sister-in-law and other relatives a few weeks ago and made many friends who are shocked to hear of her sudden bereavement. Friends of Mrs. Nissley are very sorry to learn that the little daughter, born two months ago, died recently.

William Reed Dunroy, the well known Nebraska poet will shortly have another book of verse on the market. The new volume will have the same quaint title, "Corn Tassels" and will contain the very best work of the young writer, culled from his former two volumes with the edition of many new poems. The epic written to welcome home the First Nebraska regiment is one of the new things in the book. The edition is to be a limited one and orders are coming in so rapidly in advance that it is likely that it will be exhausted in a short time. Those desiring copies should address the University Publishing Co., Lincoln, Nebraska.

FRATERNITY NOTES.

At the Lindell hotel on Wednesday evening the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassau enjoyed a banquet. Covers were laid for 250 persons.

Wednesday evening was the first ladies' evening for the season at the Union Commercial club rooms. A number of ladies availed themselves of the hospitality of the gentlemen and the evening was spent in playing whist. Light refreshments were served. The second and fourth Wednesdays in each month have been set aside for ladies and the wives of members will be most welcome.

A club composed of a number of pretty young buds calling themselves the T. N. N's. gave a dancing party Friday night at Walsh's hall. For carefulness of plan, pretty ideas and successful carrying out it has not often been excelled and the young ladies were overwhelmed with compliments. The programs were hand painted, the refreshment room was decorated and lighted in Japanese style and Misses Leah Meyer and Edith Robbins who served wore kimonos. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall, Messrs Abbott, McCreery, Tukey, Robbins, Watkins, Crandall, Whedon, Edmiston, Morrill, Rehlaender, Pancoast, Sherman, Killian, Hansen, Lau, Fawell, Stein, Hill, Eggle, Campbell, Raymond, Farnsworth, Wittmann, Wheeler, Giffen, Brock Bartlett, Reed. The T. N. N's are Misses Macfarland, Weesner, Funke, Outcalt, Hargreaves, Hunt, Cornell, Bennett, Muir, Meyer, Hayes, Wiggenhorn, Honeywell, Loomis, Cramer of Hastings, Whedon, Junge, Thurston of Omaha, Windmeyer, Daniels.

On Saturday morning Pi Beta Phi fraternity gave a much enjoyed swimming party at the Sanitarium. A luncheon in the parlors closed the entertainment. Those present were Misses Andrews, Stewart, Homerick, McPheely, Burries, Robinson, Henry, Haskell, McGahey, Waugh, Dolson, Morrill, Woodward, Stuart, Post, Stuart, Sedgwick, Thomas.

For years the men's fraternities of the Nebraska as well as of other universities have had chapter houses fitted up to be used as a home by out of town members and headquarters for resident members. This year for the first time in Lincoln the young women are following the example of their brothers in this respect. The Delta Gamma's have recently fitted and taken possession of a charming flat in the Ingleside a new house on Sixteenth and H streets. The artistic taste of its fair possessors is evidenced in every room. The hard wood floors are protected by well chosen rugs. Cosy corners and comfortable bepillowed couches abound. The parlor has been enriched by many gifts from friends and sympathizers, among them being an escritoire, chairs, pictures, a tabouret, a chafing dish, and pieces of bric a brac. Opening from the parlor on either side are smaller prettily furnished rooms which when more space is needed may be added. The young ladies in the house have been privileged to use their individual taste in the adornment of their private rooms and always with good effect, for instance one room is done in blue and white, dainty and sweet, another has a frieze of photographs, and another has a large screen covered with Gibson pictures. The fraternity den is not complete but when finished will be ideal. A Turkish corner will be a feature, as will be also a frieze made of the college pennants representing the different chapters of the Delta Gamma sorority throughout the country. The charter of the fraternity will hang here as will also a number of fraternity pictures. Mrs. Joseph Fisher will be the chaperone for this year and the following ladies will be the occupants of this the first Delta Gamma chapter house in Lincoln, Misses Tukey, Cole, Mulliken, Haecker, Jackson, Jaynes, Macomber. A system of house rules which would do credit to older and wiser heads has been adopted.
